

Use the following thoughts and questions to have one spiritual conversation. You can pick and choose, use them all or just allow the statement to be your guide. The emphasis shouldn't be about having all the answers, but simply having a conversation.

Scripture

Revelation 4:2–5:14

1. Opening Statement

Begin your conversation by asking about this main point:

God calls us to worship here on earth in anticipation of our worship of the Lamb in heaven.

This main point is the biblical truth the student's study was built around. Each week there will be one statement that ties the whole study together. These would be great statements to remember together. The hope is that thoughts and ideas will stem from these statements. You can also begin by sharing a thought of your own that you learned during your study of the same session. Ask what thoughts were surprising as the study was taught.

2. Thought From the Study

When seeing the throne of a God who is radiating a heavenly thunderstorm so powerful you have no words to describe it, you would find it difficult not to fall on your face in worship. But when you think of the power and glory of the One who created all we know (and what we do not know) by the power of His spoken Word, it keeps you down on your face.

► What aspects of creation have led you to worship God? Why?

3. Quote for Discussion

Discuss this quote together. How does this change your understanding of a relationship with Jesus?

Our worship should express more of what God has done for us, and less of what we will do for Him. —Matt Boswell

4. Conversation Questions

Use these questions to begin thinking through and applying the lessons to your family life:

1. What are some of our family's favorite worship songs? Why?
2. How can our family prepare our hearts for worship each day?
3. What ways can our family members hold each other accountable when it comes to the heart behind the worship?
4. How does Jesus' identity as king affect the way our family lives and worships today?
